... were received at the Town Hall and Corporation of Hereford. The handsome assembly-room in the old building was much admired by the Society the MAYOR (Ald. T. H. B. Jones) and he could assure them that the

On this balance, the society has a total of $282 in 84 Consoles, and $100 in 84 shares of the company. The plaintiff contends that the transactions are consummated only when the subscribers have paid their subscription in full. In the respective year, it gives a great advantage to the treasurer and the subscribers are expected to pay their subscriptions ready for issue. At the time there are 28 subscriptions in arrears and the balance of the company is $100. The plaintiff alleged that defendant had erected a fence upon a hedge and bank on plaintiffs' land. The jury viewed the fence which formed the subject of the dispute. Mr. Foster, in his closing, said the question for the jury to decide was to whom did and does the hedge and bank, on which the fence was erected, belong; if it belonged to Mr. Foster, the plaintiff was entitled to the fence and the hedge and bank. The fact of the plaintiffs and the tion was cordially adopted. Dr. J. W. Leich, D.D., Dean of the Very Reverend the Chapter of the Cathedral, remarked that it seemed a little strange for a Gloucester man to introduce a resolution in honor of a Gloucester man performing that duty, however, on
